

October 9, 2014

Dear Bobby,

I wanted to personally thank you for taking the time to speak at our annual company meeting. The interactive session you led for our group was engaging and inspiring. The key messages of your presentation were timely, relevant, and in tune with the needs and culture of our company. They were also beautifully illustrated with personal anecdotes, inspirational quotations, and entertaining videos.

During the session, you framed important and thought provoking questions that helped me and others achieve a heightened clarity of purpose and offered a new perspective on defining ourselves, our ambitions, and our business. I especially appreciated your dynamic ability to quickly assess the audience and deliver clear and poignant messages with the right balance of interaction. Your genuine and inviting manner inspired some personal sharing, which helped draw your audience into these important issues on a deeper level.

Participants commented on how they were moved to rethink some of their previously unchallenged assumptions, and how they were refreshed and ready to approach their goals with greater focus and tenacity. I have no doubt that our group will continue to ponder the various exercises you introduced and continue to apply your messages to achieve greater professional and personal success. I would certainly recommend you to other companies to help foster the kind of thoughtful leadership and personal engagement that can lead to happier, healthier, and higher performing teams.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Thomas Livelli", written over a light blue horizontal line.

Thomas Livelli
Director